

Prompt: Review Session

Use these prompts when you want to test your retention or review before reading on.

Quiz on a Specific Chapter

Quiz me on Chapter [N].

Ask me the review questions one at a time. Wait for my answer before showing the next question. At the end, give me a score and gently correct anything I got wrong.

Flashcard Drill

Flashcard drill for Chapter [N].

Show me each flashcard one at a time (just the Q first).
Wait for my answer, then reveal the A and tell me if I was right.
Keep going until all cards are done, then give me a score.

Full Book Review (all chapters so far)

story so far

Show me the master-summary.md – the running chapter log with all chapters processed so far. Then highlight any recurring themes you've noticed.

Cross-Chapter Connections

connections

What themes, ideas, or arguments keep coming up across the chapters we've covered so far? Give me a list of recurring themes with a brief explanation and the chapters where each appears.

“Teach It Back” Challenge

I want to try the Feynman technique. I'll explain Chapter [N] in my own words.
After I'm done, please:

1. Tell me what I got right
2. Gently point out anything I missed or got wrong
3. Clarify any concepts I seemed fuzzy on

Here's my explanation: [your explanation]
